Hi Sharon: I'm the author of 4 books related to photography, as well as an inventor and coach based in Central New Jersey. I like to call myself a memory preservation specialist. I help people develop automated strategies for backing up their digital files, and protect their real-life artworks and other priceless items during shipping or from damage due to fire, flood etc. One of those ways is through a custom bubble bag that I helped bring to market about 15 years ago.
