00:18:42 Laura Doman: A lot of performers are intrinsically shy or introverted.

00:23:20 Brenda Benham: Brenda Benham, Pitch Coach, Judge, and Trainer, in North Vancouver, BC, Canada.

I help purpose-driven founders do more memorable pitches based on the brain science of how people remember. I love helping founders make their pitches more memorable so they are more likely to be able to do what they are meant to do.

I am a retired lawyer who started my own business when I retired from corporate at 61 and transitioned to helping purpose-driven founders about 2 years ago.

Love to connect with purpose-driven founders and others who help them like accelerators and incubators.
