

00:07:02 Susan Jarema - Grand Connection & New Earth Marketing: Susan, I believe you stand for growing through meaningful connection, collaboration, and contribution.

More specifically, you stand for:

Relationships before transactions

Collaboration over competition

Value first, sales second

Giving generously without sacrificing yourself

Building businesses that create both profit and positive impact

Helping people become more confident, visible, and connected

Using self-awareness and neuroscience to communicate and lead more intentionally

Creating communities where people feel supported and never alone

At the heart of it all, I think you stand for this:

Business can be successful, heart-centered, and collaborative. We grow further when we help one another grow.

00:07:56 Bernice McDonald: I stand for helping women move from “not enough” to “brave enough.” I believe courage is built in small moments—when we stop letting fear decide who we are, trust ourselves again, and take one Tiny Brave Step toward the life and work that matter to us.

00:08:04 Krystal Hille: I stand for helping people recognise the significance of their lived experience, articulate the wisdom they've earned, and have the courage to share it with the world.

00:08:26 Susan Jarema - Grand Connection & New Earth Marketing: i stand for collaboration over competition.

00:08:48 Brenda Sheldrake: I stand for building businesses through relationships—where people feel seen, trust comes before the sale, connections are intentionally nurtured, and nobody has to build their dream alone.

00:20:27 Krystal Hille: 2. What do you stand against Something you see happening in your industry or society that you believe is outdated, harmful, limiting or simply no longer good enough?

00:23:51 Susan Jarema - Grand Connection & New Earth Marketing: ideas for bernice Fear doesn't get to decide who you are.

Other options:

Brave enough to take the next step.

Small steps. Real courage.

Choose courage, one tiny step at a time.

You don't need fixing. You need courage.

00:30:25 Krystal Hille: 1. What is something you believe needs to change in your industry, community or the world?

And what would you do differently if you had the opportunity?

2. Where are you currently playing it safe?

What might become possible if you were willing to be a little more uncomfortable, visible or outspoken?

00:40:45 Krystal Hille: I think I'm frozen, because everyone else is...

00:49:11 Krystal Hille: If someone were to remember only ONE idea, belief or message from you, what would you want it to be?

Your answer can become the seed of a signature message, social media post, keynote idea, podcast topic or thought-leadership statement.
