00:24:20 Vicki James: Solopreneurs want build with confidence, in a strategy that aligns — to who they are, how they work, and why they started.

Most solopreneurs have the credentials, the grit, and even the AI — and still can't figure out why the effort isn't landing when they first launch. The missing piece is usually perspective and people — a roadmap and someone in the bus who's been there. That's what creates the shift from stuck to thriving. 🙌 I'm Vicki James — if this sounds like you or people you work with, I'd love to connect!
